SUMMARY

Synopsis of Bill

House Joint Memorial 65 requests the State Land Office install an appropriate sign designating the building the “Edward J. Lopez Land Office Building”.

Significant Issues

“Edward J. Lopez Land Office Building” is etched in glass above the main entrance of the State Land Office.

FISCAL IMPLICATIONS

According to the State Land Office, the General Services Department has estimated the cost associated with crafting and installing the sign to be approximately $5.0.

The Commissioner of Public Lands indicates he would be amenable to using capitol building projects fund monies to pay for the crafting and installing of the sign.
